
4TH ICOH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON WORK ENVIRONMENT & CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASES

International Travel Fellowship

A limited number of International Travel Fellowships are available to attend the 4th ICOH International CONFERENCE on Work Environment & Cardiovascular Diseases.

The objective of this program is to foster international collaborative relationships in work environment & cardiovascular diseases research. The Fellowship is designed to provide a unique opportunity for researchers from developing countries with an interest in roles for the work environment, work organization and psychosocial stressors in the etiology of hypertension and cardiovascular disease (CVD), to participate in 4th ICOH International Conference on Work Environment & Cardiovascular Diseases (March 9-11 2005) to be held in Newport Beach, Southern California, US. Fellowship recipients will present a paper or poster at the conference.

Fellowship applicants should be graduate students or researchers employed in universities, governmental agencies, or non-profit research institutes in developing countries. The fellowship will cover the cost of air travel, a hotel room for 3 nights, and conference registration.
